

Global Nutrition Policy

Board approved 27 August 2020

At Fonterra we believe:

Good nutrition is central to our health and wellbeing ensuring that we thrive, that we are productive and make a significant contribution to society.

We recognise that people eat for enjoyment as well as to gain the essential nutrients needed to fuel the growth, development and maintenance of health and wellbeing.

Fonterra supports efforts to address the biggest nutrition issues facing the world today. We make an important contribution to improving health and wellbeing through the products and services we deliver, providing goodness for generations.

We are committed to:

- Delivering sustainable nutrition to provide goodness to our consumers, supported by the continuous improvement of our portfolio. This is managed through Fonterra's Food and Nutrition Guidelines that reflect current scientific evidence and guidance from key global health authorities and is also reflected in our public targets relating to the nutrition performance of our portfolio.
- Delivering a strong pipeline of honest, credible and science-based nutrition and health benefits to deliver value to our customers and consumers.
- Supporting communities by developing products tailored to their specific nutritional needs, including healthy options that deliver and/or complement the goodness of dairy.
- Being respected and recognised as a credible source of nutrition knowledge that enables consumers to make informed nutrition choices.
- Maintaining strong relationships as part of key global discussions to acknowledge the role of our products and ingredients as part of healthy and sustainable diets, while protecting the integrity of dairy nutrition through our products and messaging.
- Limiting the use of ingredients that may have a negative impact on health and ensuring compliance with relevant food regulations and policies.
- Responsibly promoting our products to be enjoyed as part of a balanced diet and healthy lifestyle.

And we expect that:

- As a global nutrition company, we operate honestly and with integrity regarding nutrition to deliver products and services to meet nutrition and health needs, help consumers to make informed nutrition choices and enable healthy business outcomes for the future.
